PRINCE AND KAISER

Promised Dying Queen Victoria They Would Maintain Peace.

It is not so very long ago that it happened, but many changes have occurred since that time and many pledges have since been broken as will be noted from the following dispatch published in a Chicago paper of January 23, 1901:

"London, Jan. 23, 1901.—In her last lucid rally before death, the Queen summoned the Prince of Wales and the Kaiser to her bedside and beseeched them as they loved her to avoid war, and maintain peace. The Prince and Kaiser knelt and swore to do all in their power to reign in peace and never allow England and Germany to clash, and to endeavor to induce all other nations to do likewise."

If the good Queen Victoria could see the bloody conflict now waging between the two nations she would have reason to realize that pledges are not always passed along with the honors and emoluments of office.

ROSSBACH-KEIFER WEDDING.

On Thursday morning, October 14, at 9:00 a. m. at the Catholic Church of St. Rose, was solemnized the marriage of Mr. Fred P. Rossbach and Miss Mary Helen Keifer by Rev. J. Keibel.

Miss Keifer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Keifer, and is one of Perry'sburg's most charming and beautiful young women, and Mr. Rossbach, the son of Prof. Rossbach, is a promising young business man.

The bride was lovely in her gown of ivory satin de amore, with court train, trimmed in rose point and silver lace. She wore a wedding veil of filmy tulle which fell to the end of her train, and she carried a shower bouquet of valley lilies and bridal roses. The only jewelry worn by the bride was a pendant of diamonds, the bridegroom's gift.

The groom wore the conventional black, and was attended by his brother, Mr. B. J. Rossbach, as groomsmen.

The bride's sister, Miss Clara Keifer, as maid of honor, was exquisitely gowned in peach blow crepe de chine, with silver and pearl trimmings, and silver slippers. She wore a hat of silver lace and rose satin and carried an armful of sunburst roses.

The bride was also attended by the nieces of the bridegroom as flower girls, the little Misses Petronella Hoffman and Elizabeth Munger, in dainty frocks of canary yellow and sea green chiffon, trimmed in radium lace, carrying arm bouquets of chrysanthemums.

The musical program, under the direction of Prof. Rossbach, was flawlessly rendered.

The young couple left on a wedding trip to Cleveland, and upon their return will be at home on Second street. The bride's traveling costume was of plum colored chiffon velvet, trimmed in black fox fur, with hat to match with ostrich plume trimmings.

THE SPRAGUE BILL

A Just Measure that Should Be Approved by Electors.

To the Voters of Ohio:

Vote to sustain the Sprague Bill providing for a fair re-districting of the State of Ohio for Congressional purposes, at the election to be held on Tuesday, November 2, 1915.

Unquestionably a big majority of the voters of Ohio favor the Protective policy of the Republican Party. To secure the re-establishment of that policy it is necessary to have a Republican Congress as well as a Republican President.

Ohio's representation in Congress may decide the issue. The majority in the House of Representatives as between the Democratic Free Traders and Republican Protectionists will very likely be so small that Ohio's strength thrown to one side or the other would control the situation.

The aim of the Democracy is to secure as large a Democratic representation as possible especially from such States as Ohio. Hence the opposition of the Democratic organization in this State to the Sprague Re-districting Bill, and their attempt to defeat it by referendum at the election on November 2nd.

The present law — which the Sprague Bill supplants—is an unfair partisan measure, and was enacted for the specific purpose of giving the Democracy a larger representation in Congress than it is equitably entitled to by the vote cast. On the other hand, the Sprague Bill gives to the people of Ohio a fair representation in Congress, based on the normal proportionate vote of the respective political parties. Common honesty and justice to the voters justifies your support of the Sprague Bill.

VOTE FOR THE SPRAGUE BILL AND DEFEAT THE DEMOCRATIC REFERENDUM!

Yours for fair play and a protective Tariff.

EDWIN JONES,
Chairman Republican State Exec. Committee.

Chronic Constipation.

"About two years ago, when I began using Chamberlain's Tablets, I had been suffering for some time with stomach trouble and chronic constipation. My condition improved rapidly through the use of these tablets. Since taking four or five bottles of them my health has been fine," writes Mrs. John Newton, Irving, N. Y. For sale by all dealers.

SERIOUSLY INJURED

Man's Leg Broken When Motorcycle Collides With Buggy.

On Sunday afternoon an accident occurred at the corner of Front street and Louisiana avenue which resulted in injuries that will cause Leo Wilson, of Sandusky to forge motorcycle riding for many weeks.

The young man was returning from Toledo and as he was approaching Main street he failed to turn out far enough to pass an automobile which was endeavoring to pass another machine, and his motorcycle struck the left fender of the auto. The motorcycle and its rider turned over in the muddy street and young Wilson sustained a fracture of the left leg below the knee.

He was immediately conveyed to the Rheinfrank hospital where he received prompt attention, and is doing nicely.

He is 25 years of age, unmarried, and employed as a cooper in the A. J. Asher coopershop, of Sandusky.

PERRYSBURG BOY

Writes Entertaining Letter of Experience in Military School.

Howe Military School, Oct. 16, 1915.
Dear Friend Mr. Blue:

I am at the Howe Military School, near Howe, Ind., the closest large town being Sturgis, which is six miles away, just over the boundary in Michigan.

The military training is a little strict. There are about 80 boys in A and B companies. "A" consists of boys who attended the school last year. "B" company are all new boys but the officers. We have a captain, lieutenant, a sergeant and a number of corporals in "B" company. The major is commandant of the military classes of the school, and his name is Major Berlin, from Ohio. He is on the governor's staff of officers for Indiana. Our guns are new guns made last year, and are "Krag Jorgensen's," weighing nine pounds. We must have them cleaned, oiled and brightened for Saturday morning inspection. When we are lined up Saturday morning at 9:00 a. m., our teeth are supposed to be cleaned, hair combed and shoes blackened. As the major comes to us we throw our guns up to port arms, and pull the bolt and open the chamber of the rifle. He looks in for dust and if he gets his white gloves dirty there is trouble for the owner of the gun.

Our bill of fare on Sunday is: For breakfast, first an orange and a banana, then cocoa and beans. For dinner, chicken, mashed potatoes, pickles, ice cream. For supper, meat and potatoes. We go to bed at 9:15 p. m. and get up at 6:15 a. m. In seven minutes we have to be dressed and go down stairs and wash. We have 15 minutes to wash and then there is a recall. At the second recall we have to be in our rooms. We then go to formation and march to breakfast. After breakfast we are dismissed and go to our rooms and make our beds and dust the pictures and furniture and sweep the room. We then go to school; it is then about 8:00 a. m. We have a 15 minute recess at 10:00. School lets out at 12:00. We then wash and go to dinner, and are dismissed until 2:00. At 2:00 p. m. we have a military drill which lasts till 2:50; we then go to school till 5:00 p. m. Then we have a half hour to wash or do whatever we want to till 5:30, and then go to chapel for 20 minutes, and then to supper. After supper we have 15 minutes to play the piano or sing or sit in a large living room. At 7:00 we go to school and study for an hour. At 8:15 we return to barracks and then go to formation. This is called tattoo; we have a drill, and then may take a bath or go to bed. At 9:00 p. m. we are supposed to be in bed and all lights out. On Wednesday and Saturday afternoons we have no school and go to the football games and moving picture shows.

We are allowed five demerits a week; if over we must walk 15 minutes for each demerit. The merits one wins are added to our department grade. On November 1st we have a military drill and dancing and different exercises. Yours truly,
CHARLES WITZLER.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

Placed Against William Shier for Death of Raymond Pratt.

As announced in the Journal last week the auto driven by William Shier, of Maumee, knocked down and caused fatal injuries to Raymond Pratt, 8 years of age.

On Saturday last a warrant was issued charging Shier with manslaughter.

He was given a hearing before Mayor Finkbeiner on Monday and bound over to Common Pleas Court in $2000 bail.

Shier's companion, who was in the auto at the time of the accident, committed suicide a few days after the accident.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Services for Next Sunday in Several Perry'sburg Churches.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Items of general interest and announcement of services for Sunday October, 24:

Beginning at 9:30 the Sunday School convenes to study "Elisha's Heavenly Defenders." 2 Kings, 6:8-23. The Men's Bible Class meets at the same hour and extends a cordial invitation to men to be present.

Morning worship and sermon at 10:30. Dr. Phely will preach on the subject "The Health of Religion." There will be no evening services in this church but our congregation will unite in a Union service with the Methodist Episcopal Church at 7 o'clock, when a former pastor, Rev. Webster, now of Toledo, will speak in the interest of our great common cause. The Dry Campaign.

Junior C. E. meeting at 2:30, with Miss Esther Broka in charge.

Senior Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:30. Topic, "Capturing Politics for God." Prof. R. L. Cole leader.

At the business meeting, last Friday Evening, Miss Grace Hollenbeck was elected chairman of the Look-out Committee, Miss Marie Sargent, chairman of the Social Committee and Miss Lelia Hollenbeck, chairman of the Junior Committee, which insures efficient leadership for these important departments of our Young People's work.

The Ladies' Aid Society, which comprises all the ladies of the congregation, met at the church last Tuesday and re-elected Miss Tina McKnight, president; Mrs. Oblinger, Mrs. Main and Mrs. Roose, Vice presidents; Miss Beach, Secretary and Miss Ladd, Treasurer. The annual bazaar was set for December 8th, and the plan is to make the event the biggest ever held by the Society.

Prayer and praise service, Thursday Evening at 7:30. The topic "More Value than Many Sparrows." Psalm 84.

To these services, all are heartily invited.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Sunday, October 24.

Bible School at 9 o'clock. Remember it is Rally Day. You will want to be present or folks will be telling you how you missed it. The program will be special—music special, speaker special, so your special part will be a special effort to be present. G. F. Spreng in charge of the City Mission Toledo will address the combined Sunday School and Church service and give some of his experiences. They are splendid.

The Teachers' Training Class is enthusiastic. The Bible is studied

PLAYED WEAK GAME

Perry'sburg Foot Ball Team No Match for Glenwoods.

The Glenwoods of Toledo in the opening game of football on the local lot, shut out Perry'sburg 71 to 0. The Perry'sburg team played a hard game, but the speedy Glenwoods were too much for the locals. The Glenwoods are claimed to be in the class with the Maroons.

There seems to be a drawback on the Perry'sburg team, as they are not playing up to their standard form.

There will be a change made this week and a scoring machine will be added. Be out and boost.

Next Sunday the East Toledo Athletics will be the attraction. The E. T. A.'s are a fast team and will give Perry'sburg a battle.

The classy Classers won their third game of the season from the Mecca A. C., 19 to 0. This is the third shut out for the Classers. They will play the Delawares next Sunday at 1 o'clock. Z-Q-H.

RETIRE FROM OFFICE

Chas. E. Steinbaugh was honored this morning by his fellow officials at the court house when he stepped out of office and surrendered the affairs of the county auditor to Ralph S. Gillespie. He was presented with a handsome traveling bag and Prosecutor Solesher in a clever manner expressed the appreciation and esteem in which Mr. Steinbaugh is held. Mr. Gillespie will have for his deputies E. E. Coriell, Miriam Dunn and Ada Steinbaugh, three experienced and efficient people who have done most excellent work in the past.—Sentinel.

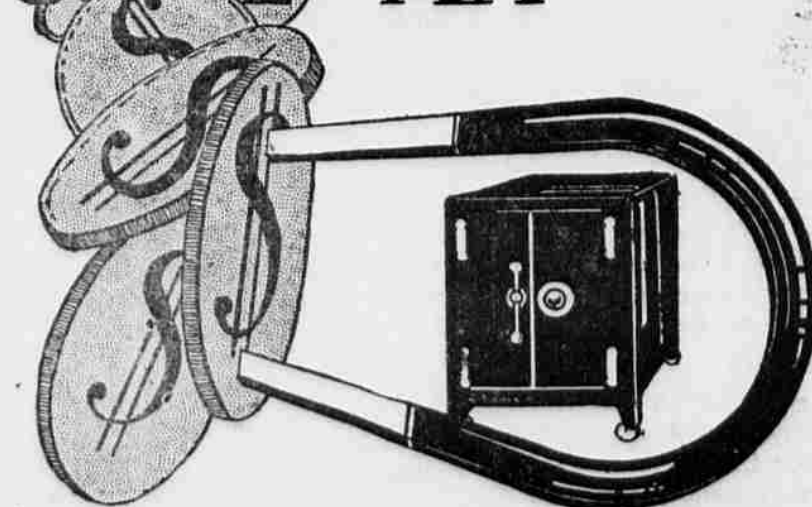

ROSSFORD WILL ENTERTAIN.

The members of the Perry'sburg Civic Association are invited to meet with the Rossford Association on Tuesday evening, October 26, 1915, in Gates' hall at 7:30 p. m.

Secretary Hanselman of the Rossford Association assures the Perry'sburg association that a good time is assured those who attend.
